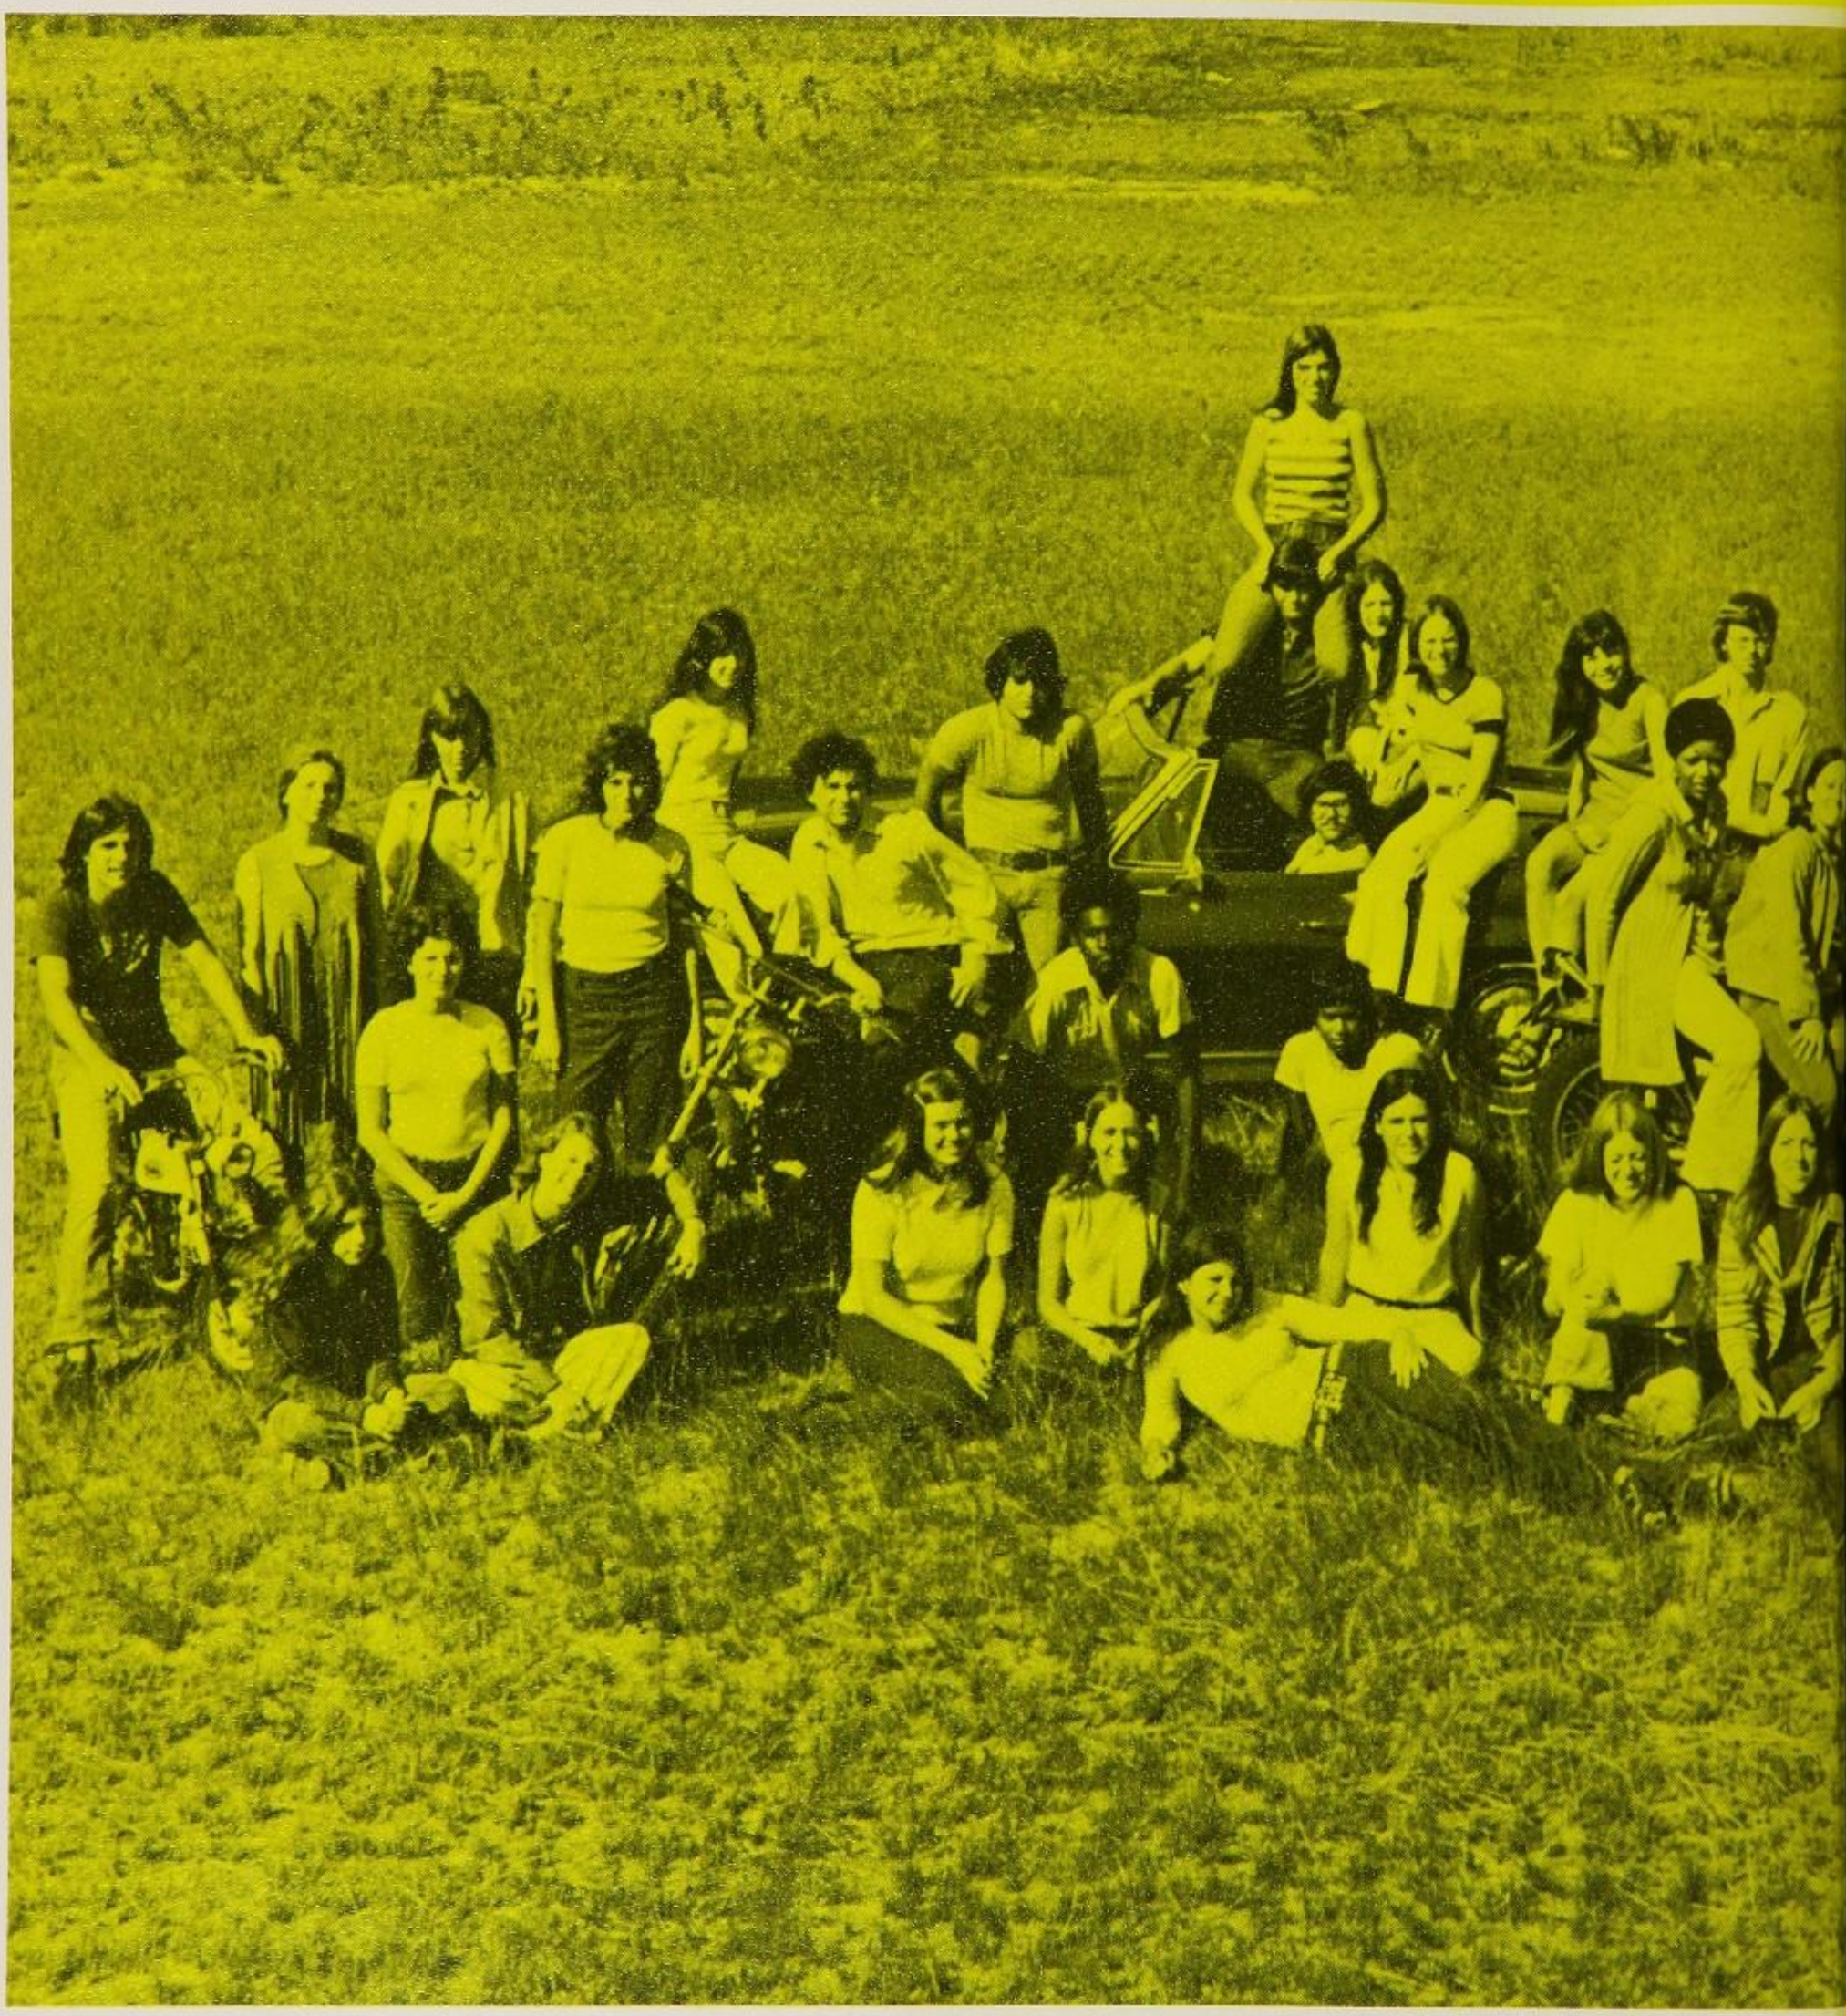
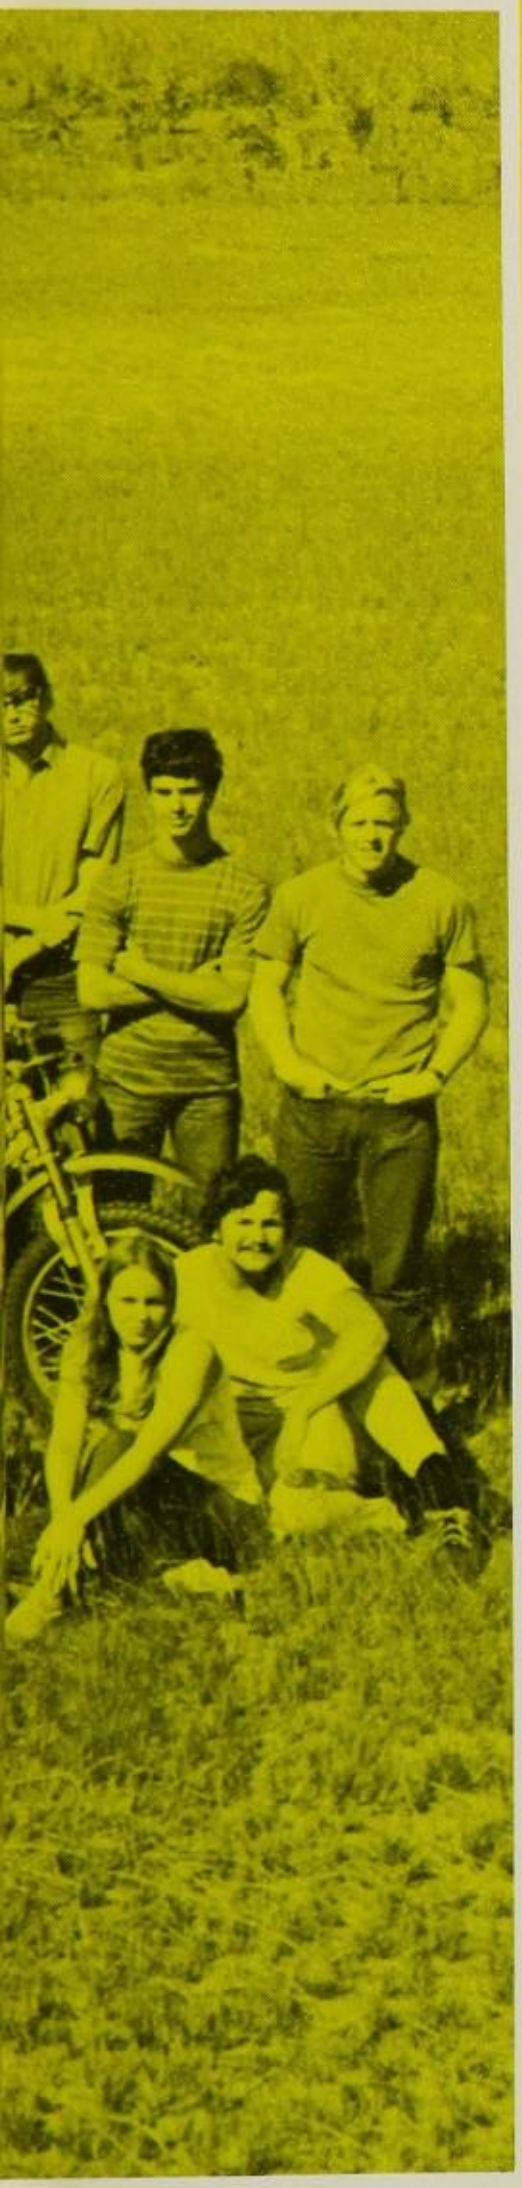
RETROSPECT '73

"We've looked at life from both sides now . . ."





Sitting here in these woods everything around is so peaceful and calm. The wind is blowing and it is very cold! Despite the freezing temperature, I can see life. Everything around me is living. I am living, and I know I am superior to all these forms of life. I notice that everything is moving and I think I'll do the same. These paths may lead me to a different environment.

Everything here is very different from the woods. Life at this unknown destination is too corrupt. War, hatred and killing exist. I am told that THIS is civilization—this is the way human beings live!

Life is a tough game to play. One has to put a lot into it to obtain anything of value, especially if his goals are different from those of today's society. If someone profits from the theme of this year's RETROSPECT, then the time and effort that were spent on it was worthwhile.

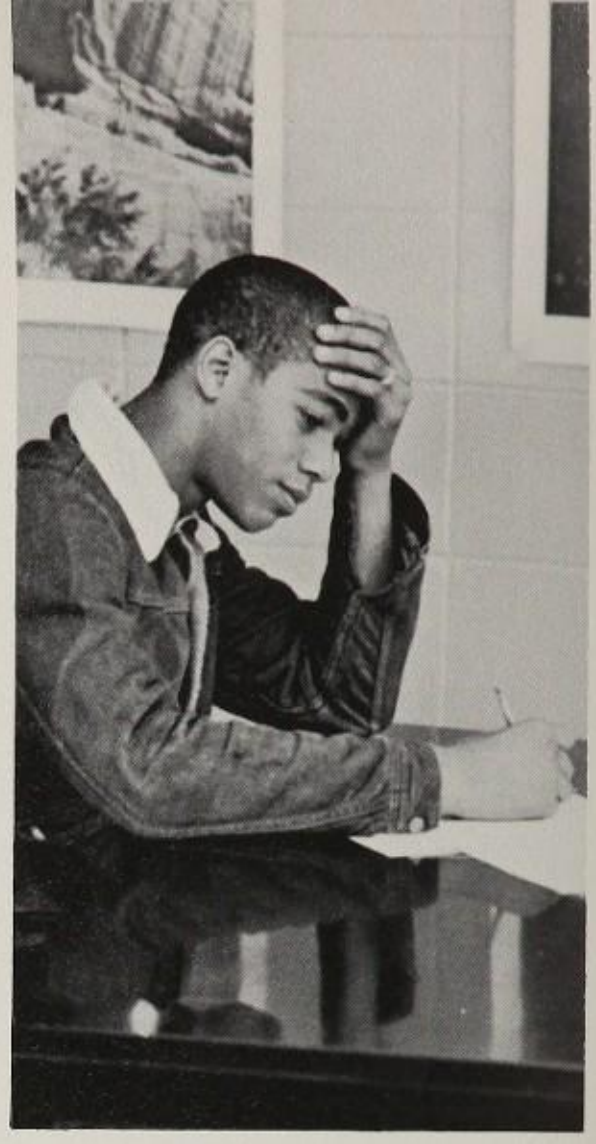
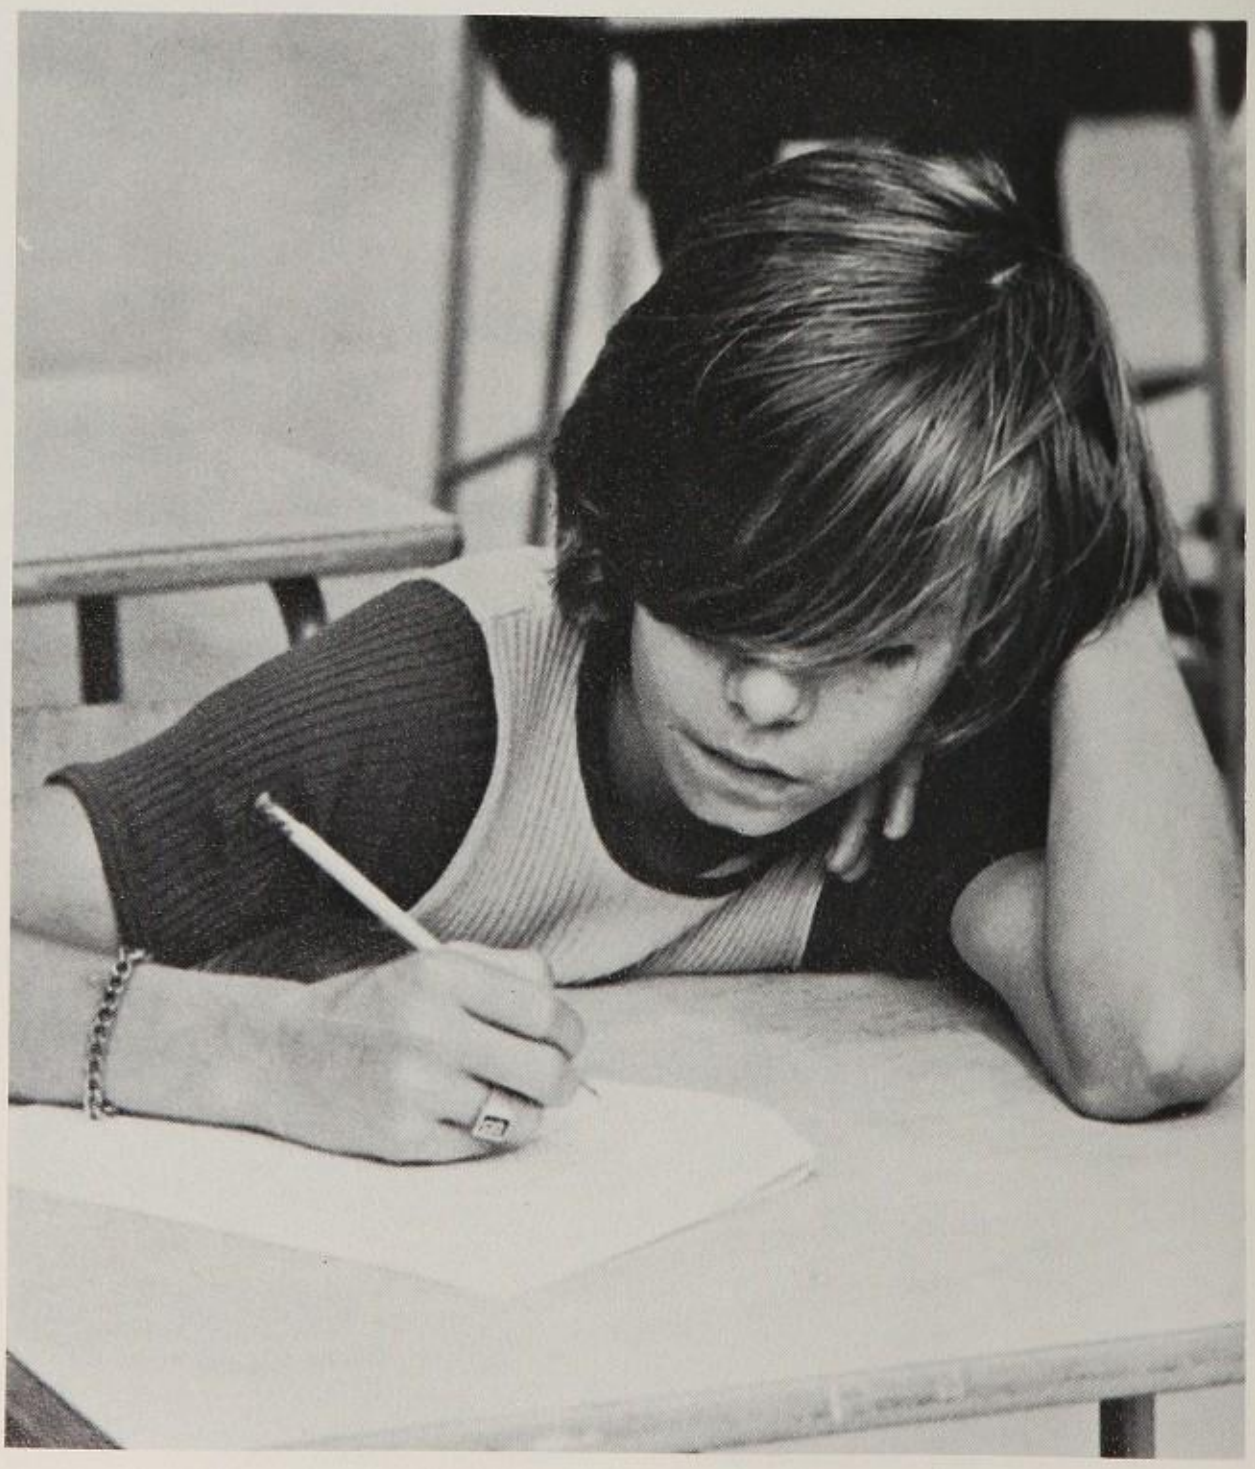
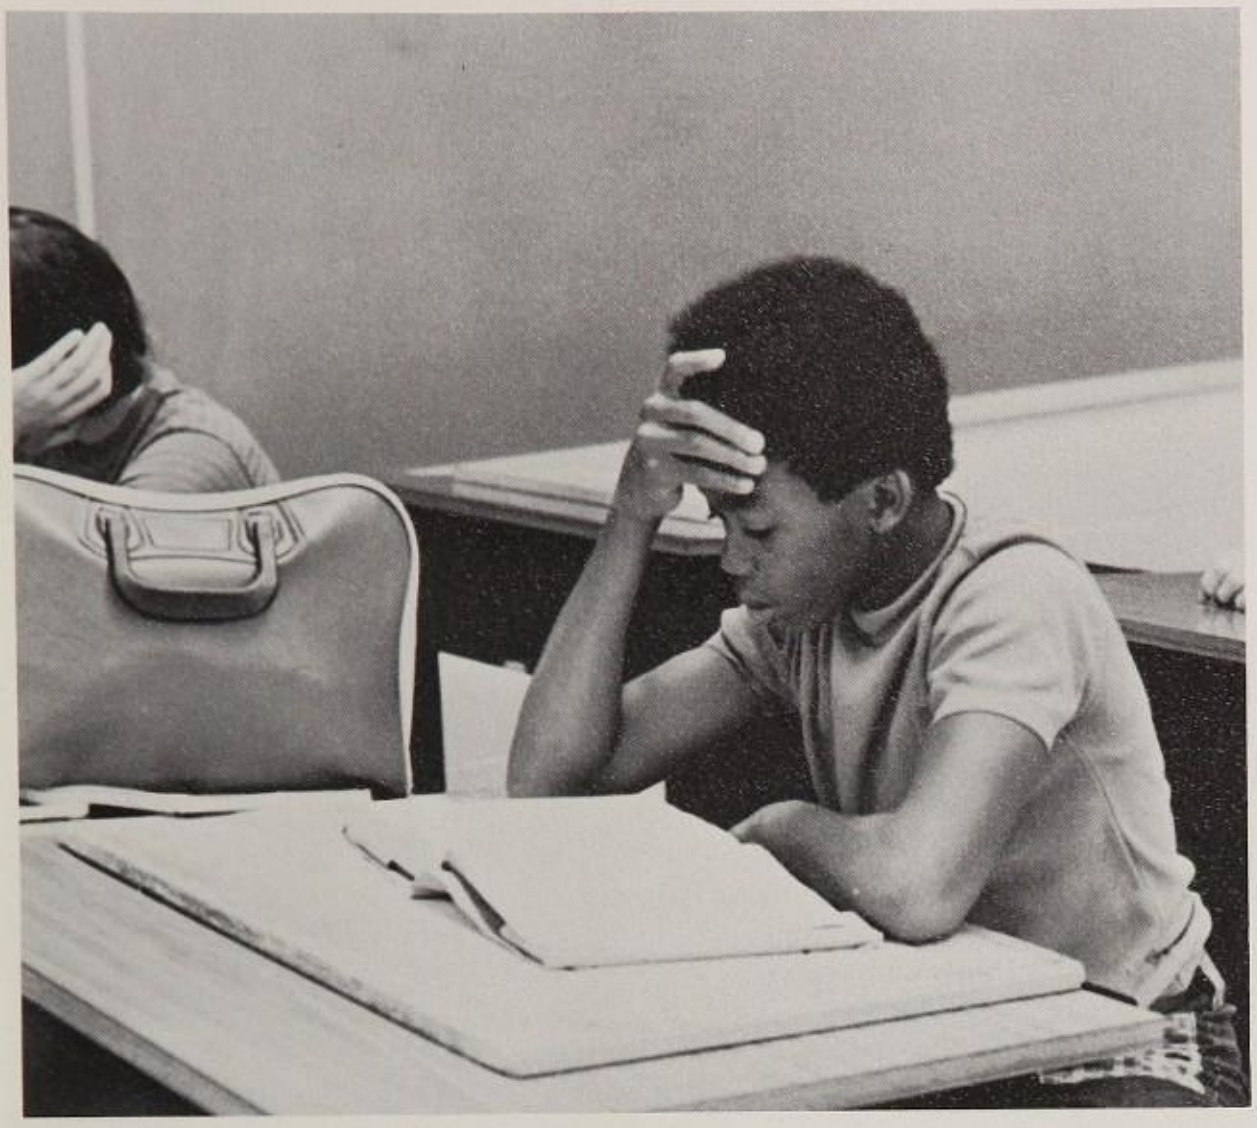
"The art of life is to know how to enjoy a little and to endure much."

William Hazlitt

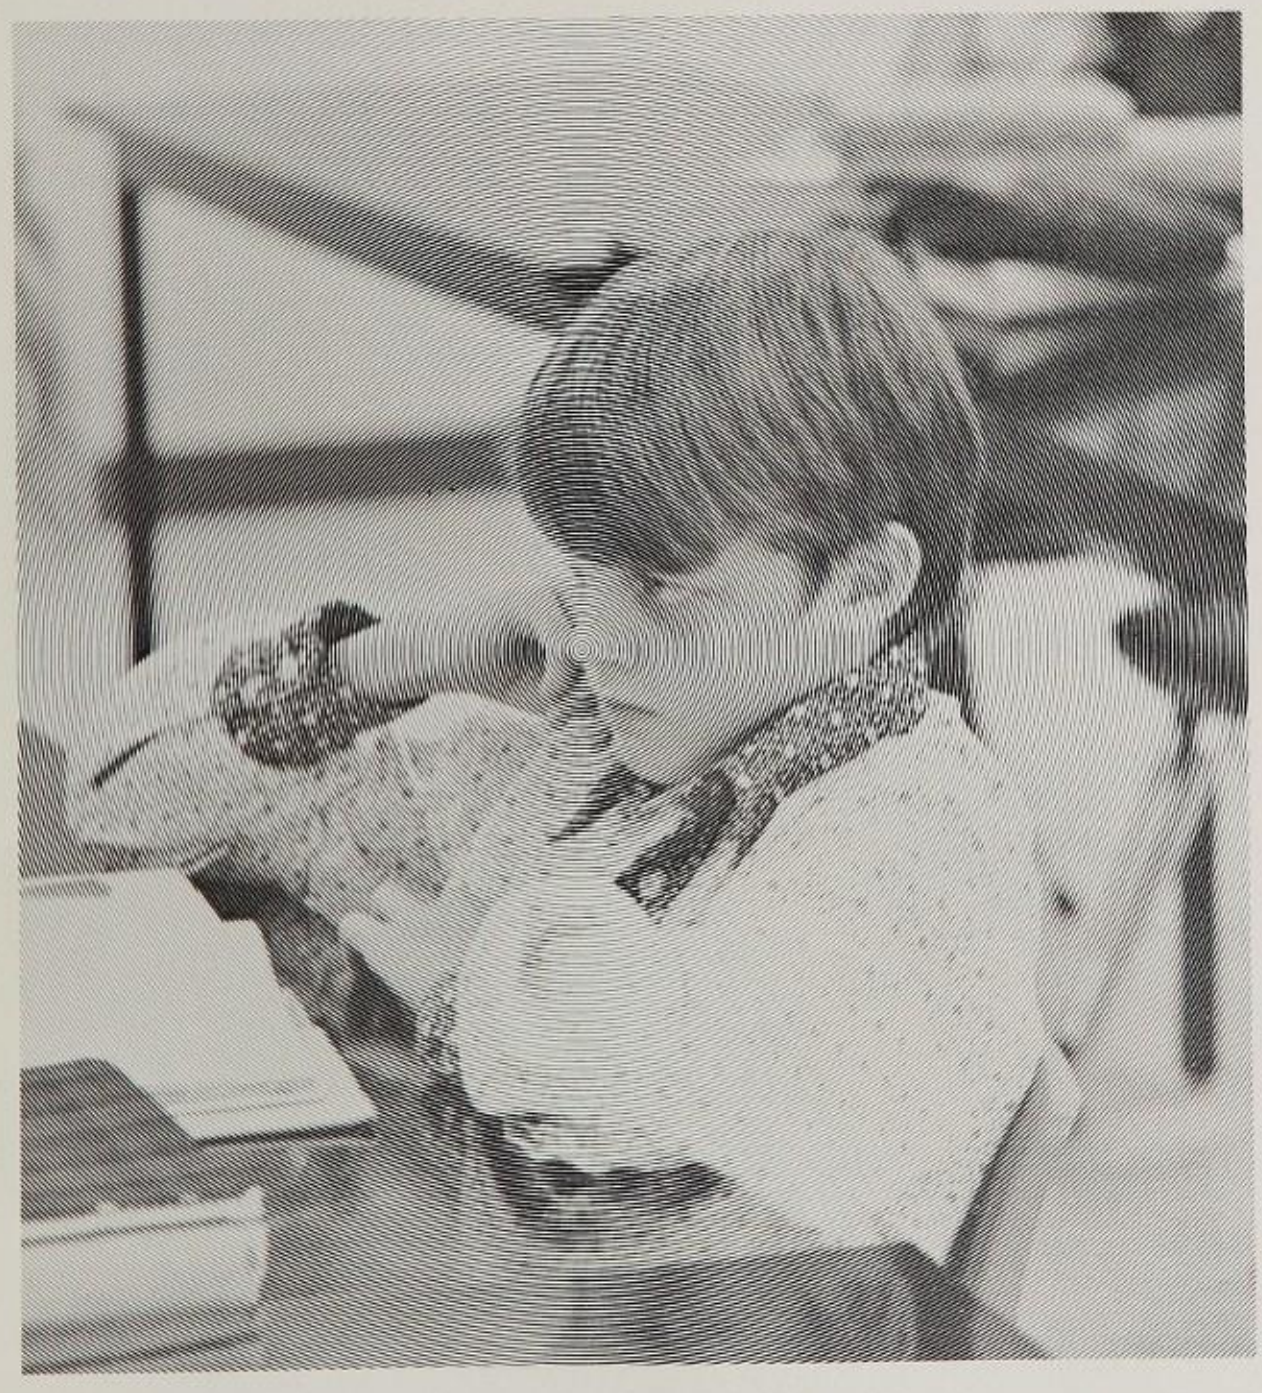


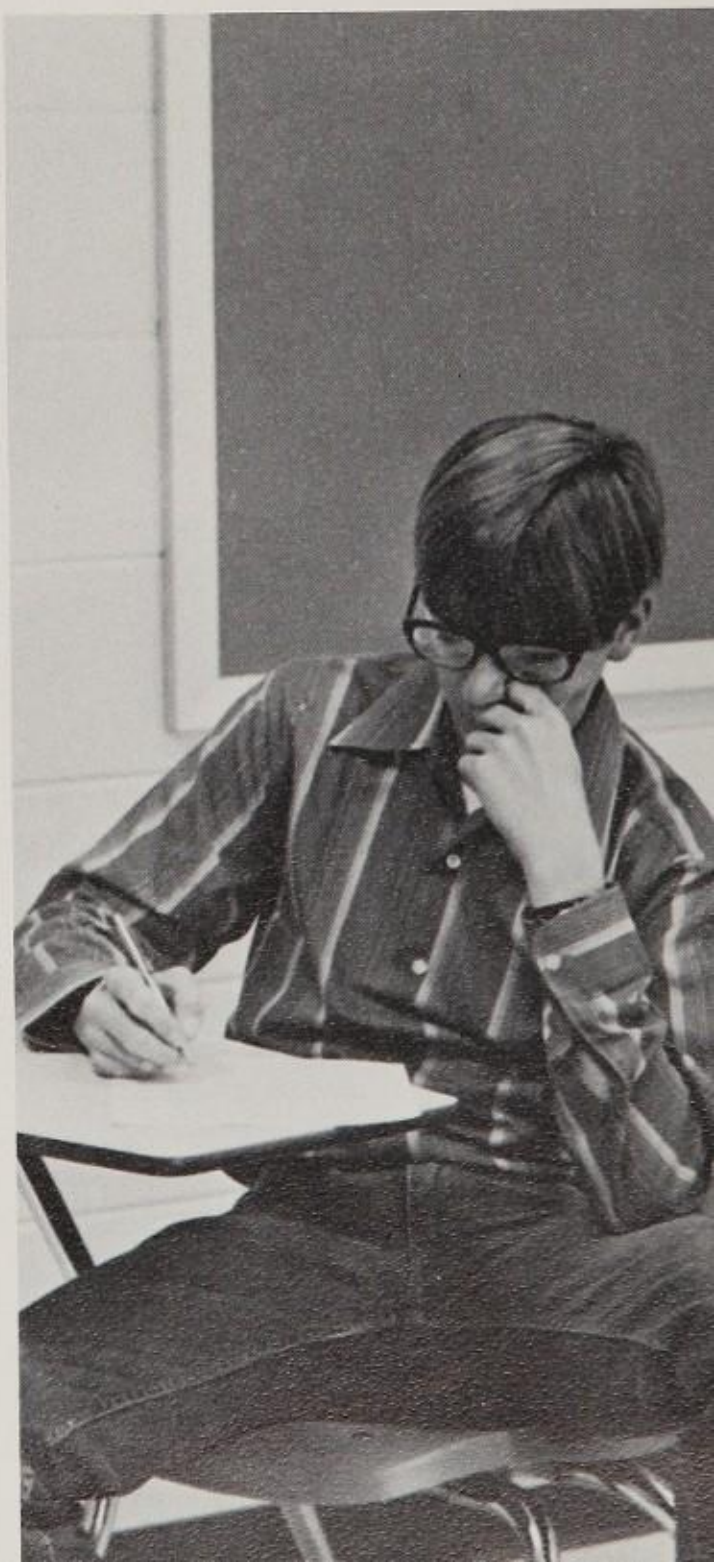


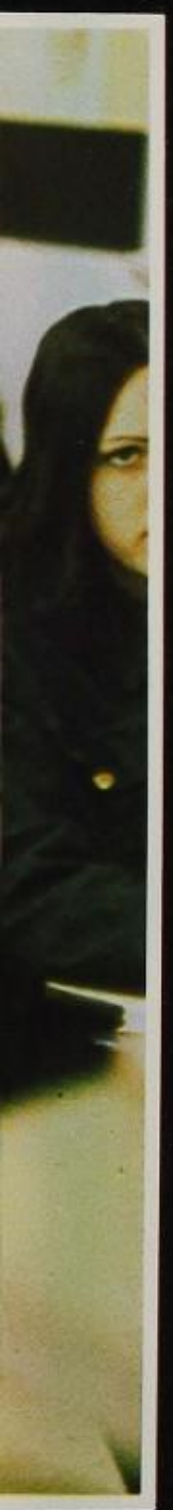


"Life is a long headache on a noisy street."

John Masefield

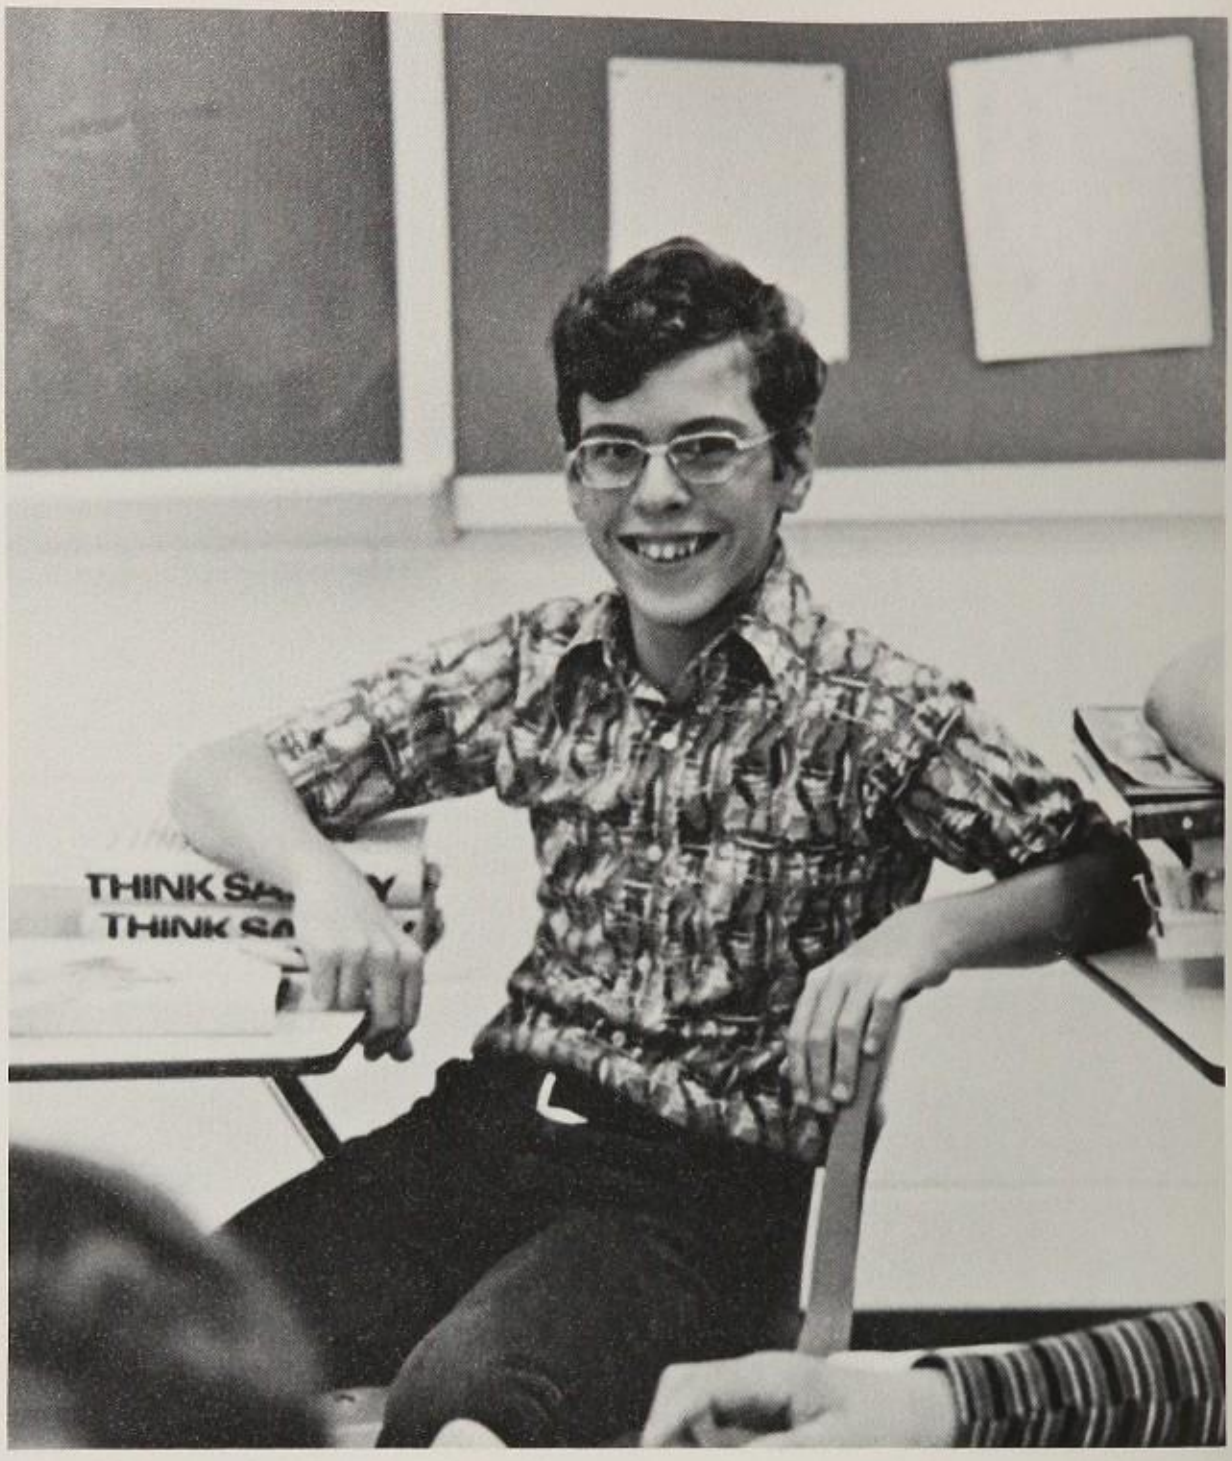






"Life is one long process of getting tired."

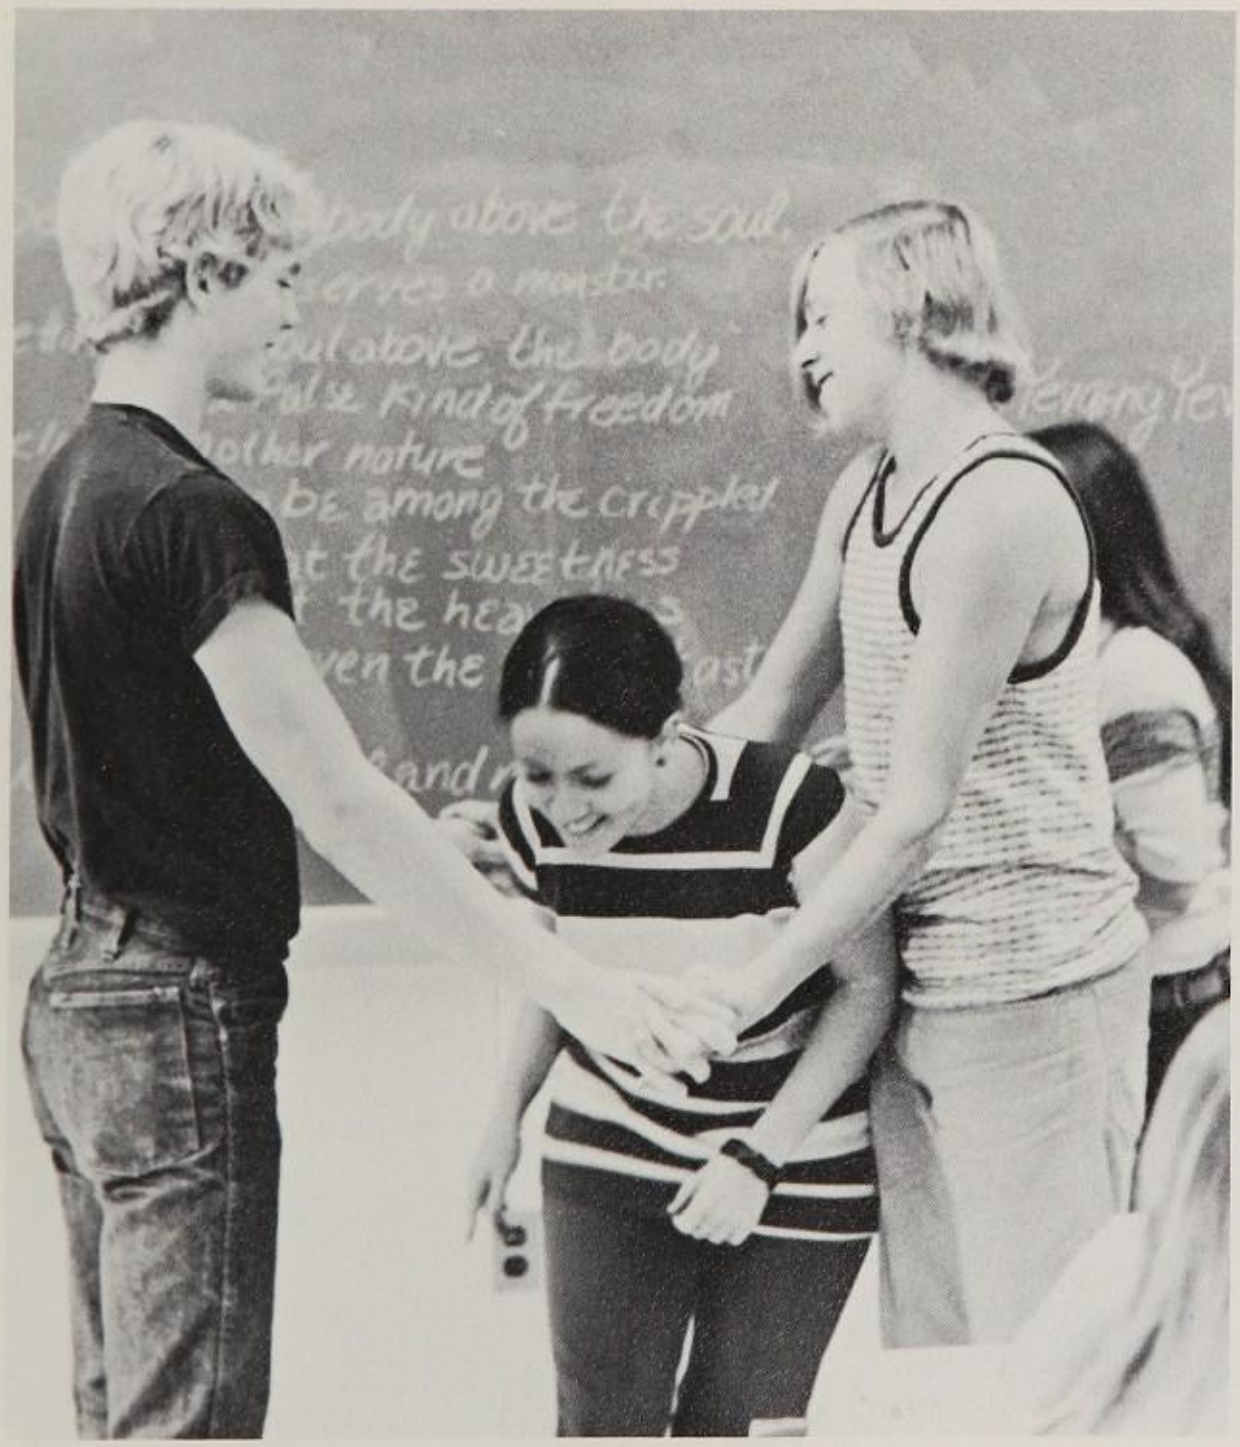
Samual Butler

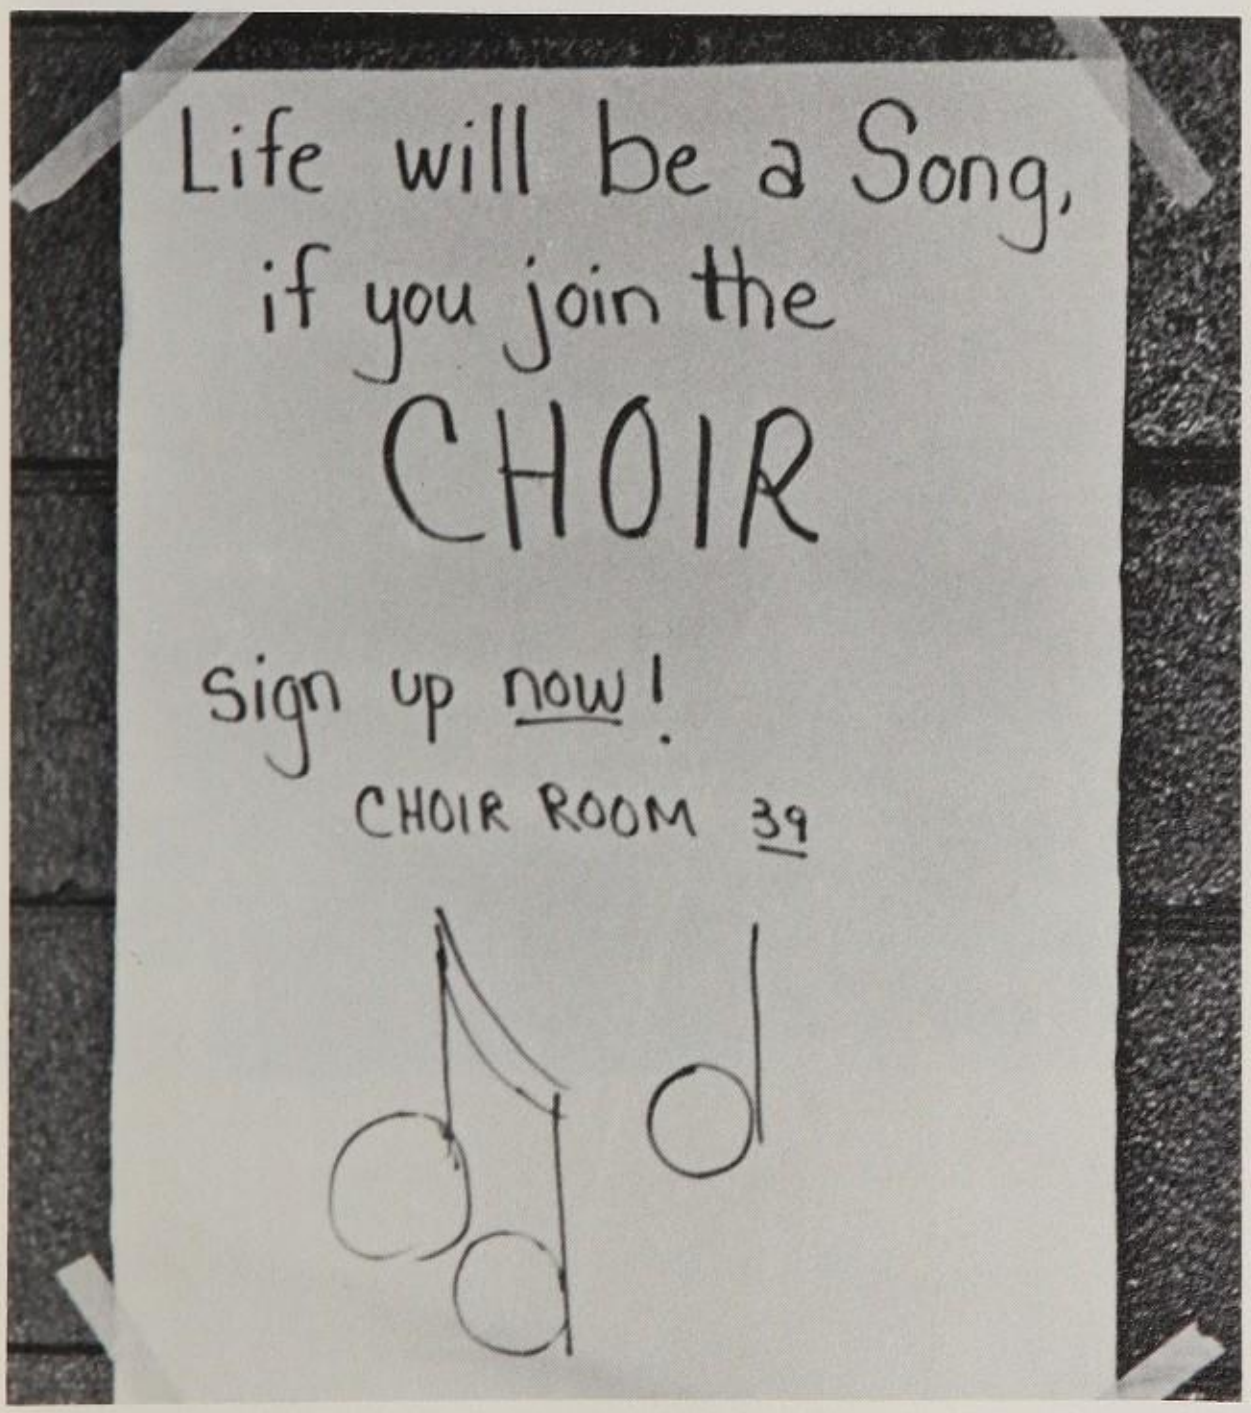


THINK SA
THINK SA

"Life is a jest
and all things show it,
I thought so once
and now I know it."

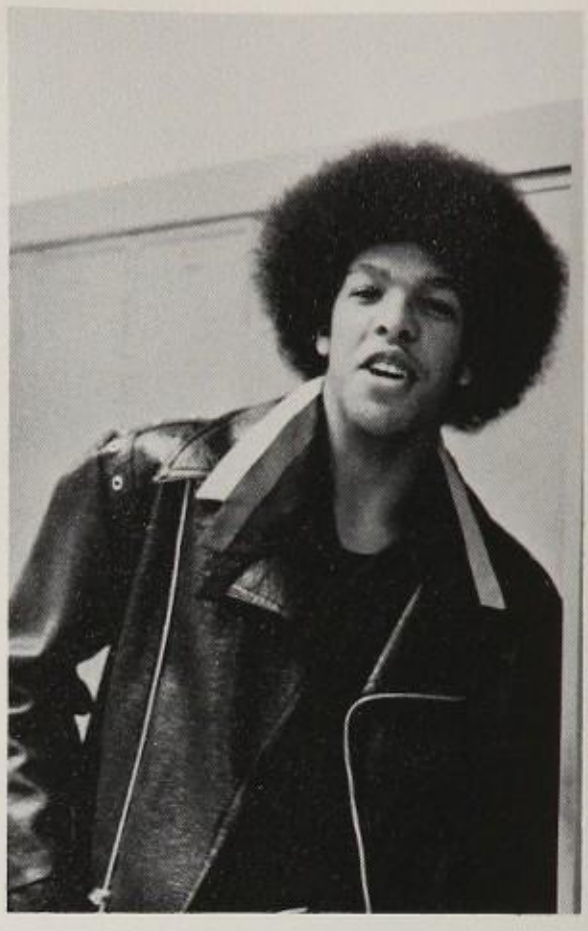
John Gay





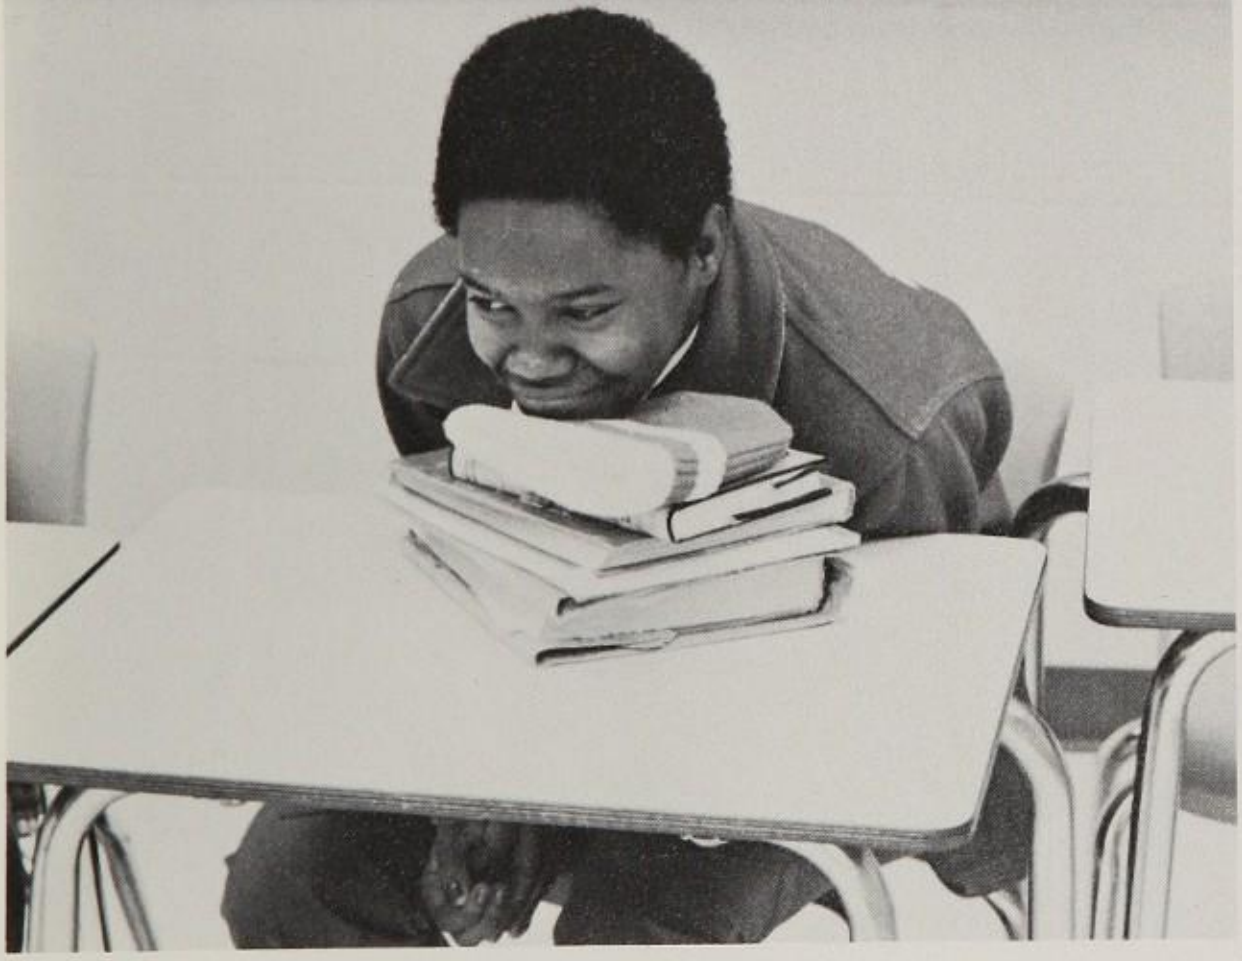
"For something is lost but something is gained in living everyday."

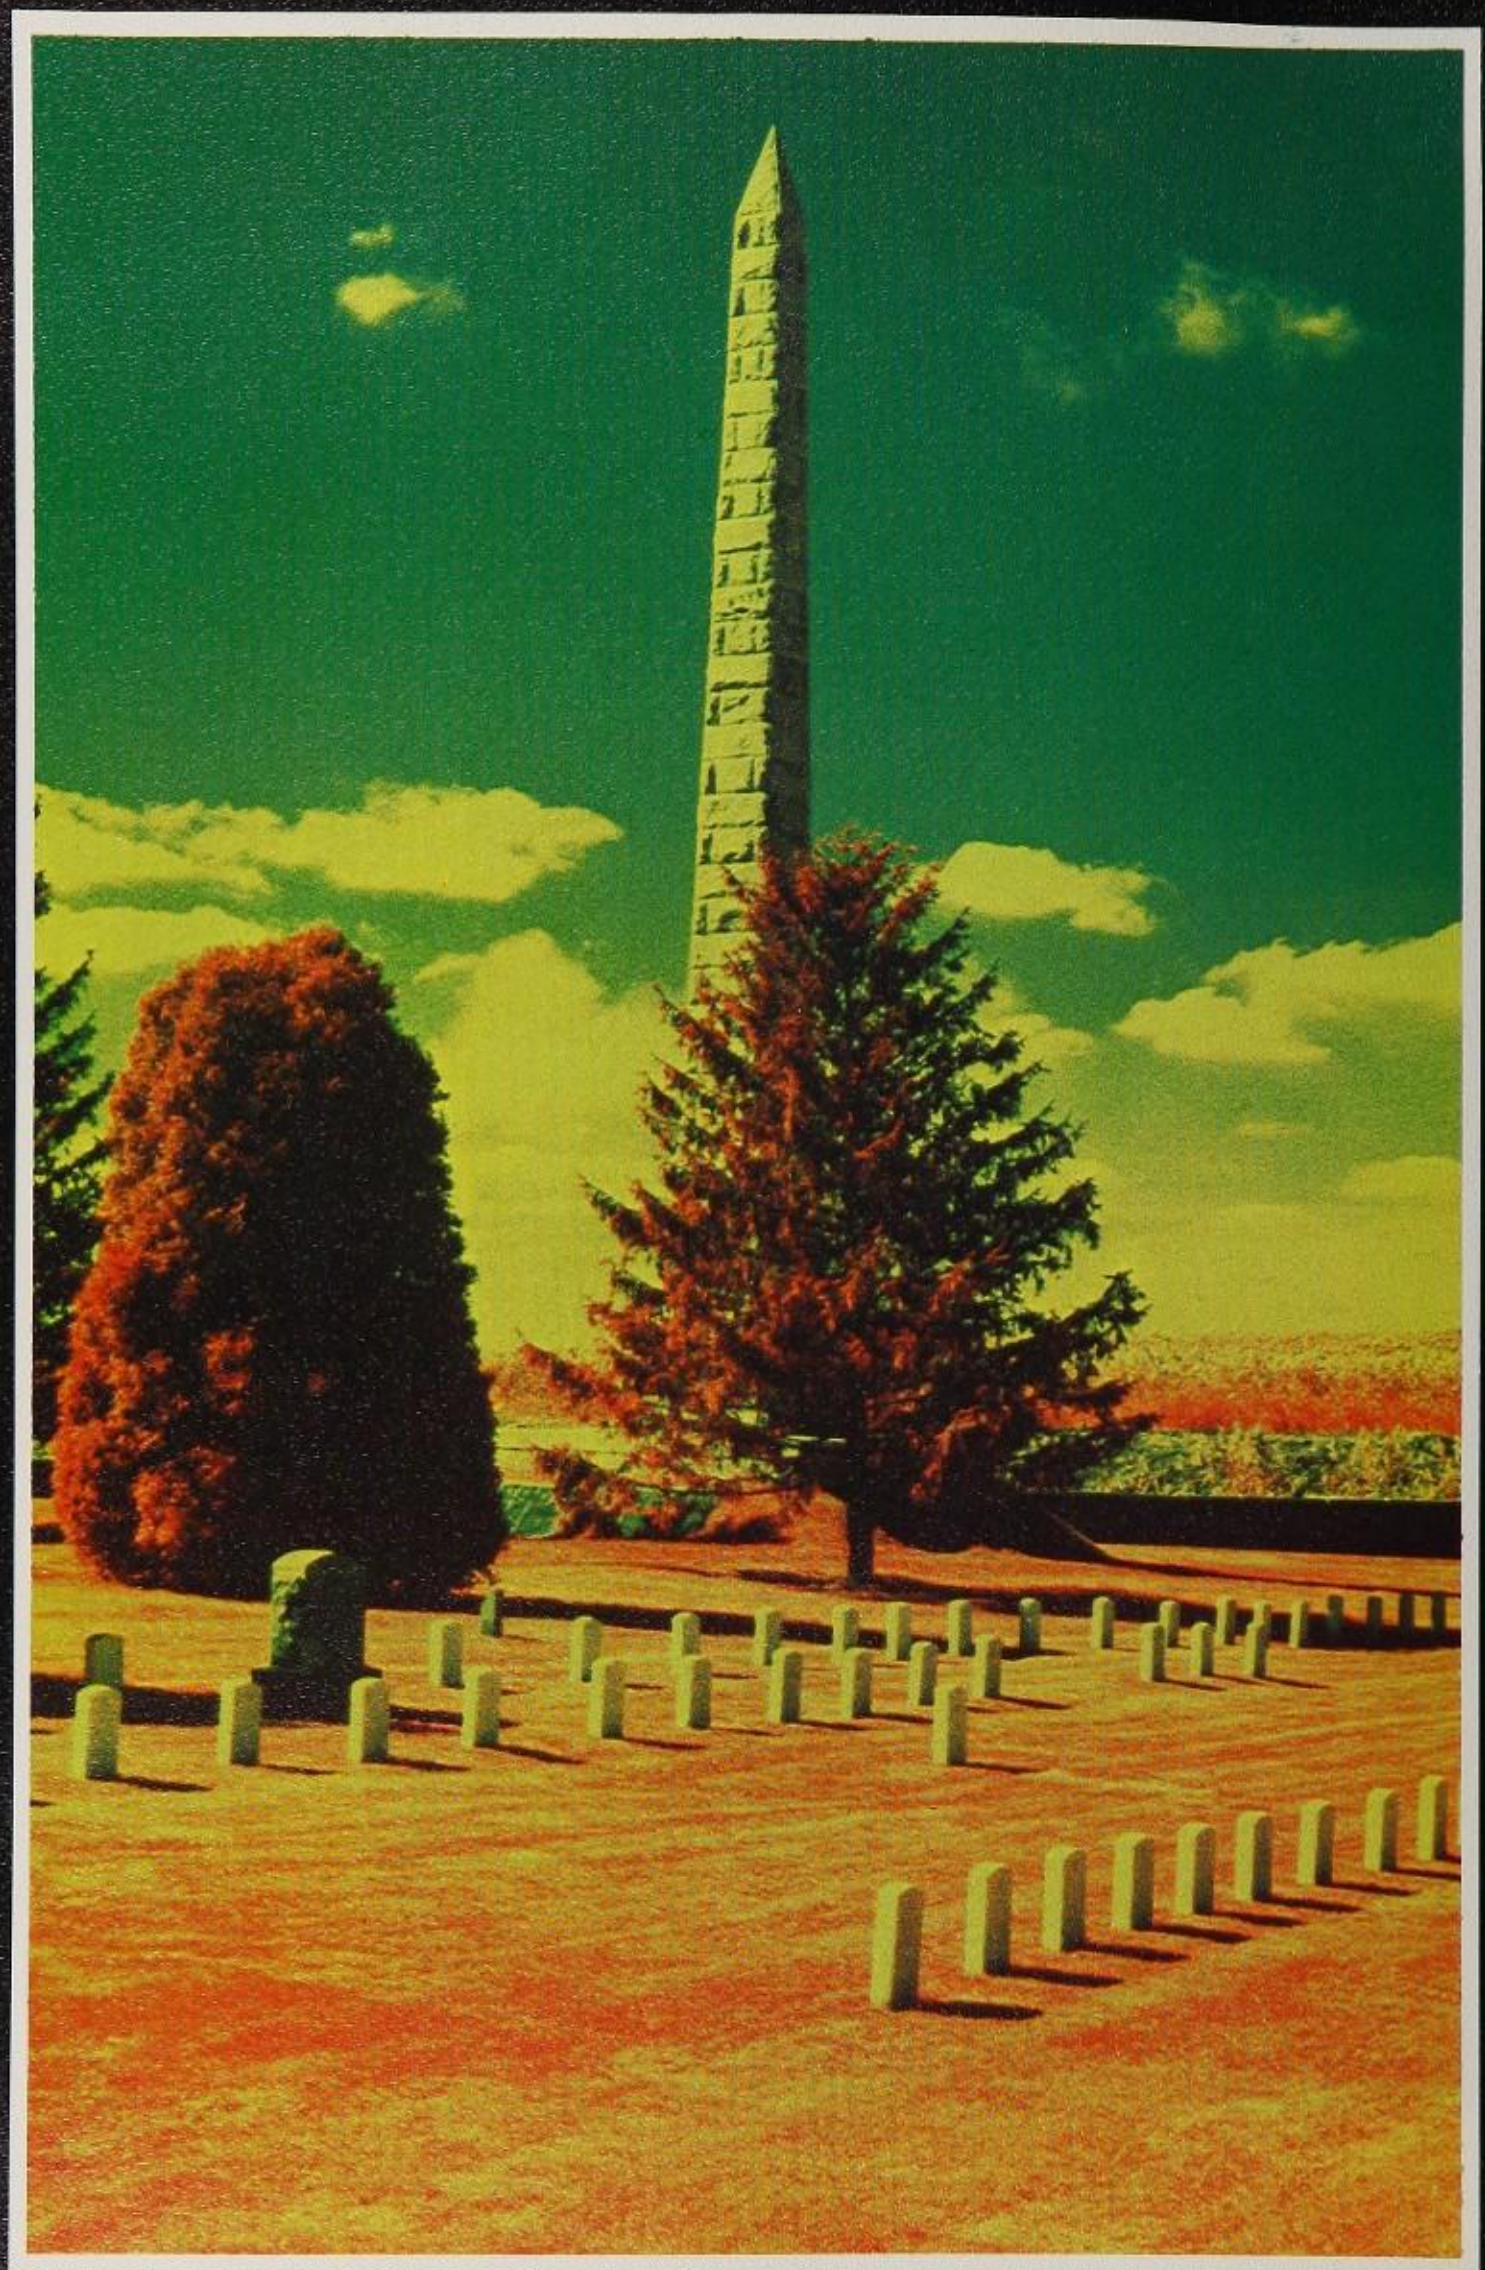
Joni Mitchell



"There is no cure for birth and death save to enjoy the interval."

George Santayana





"Life is short,
the art long,
opportunity fleeting,
experience treacherous,
judgement difficult."
Hippocrates

"WHOM THEN DO I CALL EDUCATED?

First, those who control circumstances instead of being mastered by them, those who meet all occasions manfully and act in accordance with intelligent thinking,
those who are honorable in all dealings,
who treat good-naturedly persons and things that are disagreeable,
and furthermore, those who hold their pleasures under control and are not overcome by misfortune, finally those who are not spoiled by success."

Socrates

"WHOM THEN DO WE HONOR IN THIS EDITION OF RETROSPECT?"

Brenda Hellen Martin
Date of Birth 9/28/54
Date of Death 5/22/71

Death Be Not Proud

Death be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From Rest and Sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go–
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!

Thou'rt slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than they stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And Death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die!
